

Dear _____:

I am pleased to offer you the position of Part-Time Instructor in the Department of _____. The appointment is for the period of _____ through _____.

Your specific assignment is to teach the course _____, section _____ during the _____ semester in the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture, Food and Environment. This assignment is contingent on course enrollment. In accepting this appointment, you understand you are not assured employment for the entire appointment period.

[Departments may add additional information about responsibilities and expectations here]

The position pays a salary of $_____ for teaching the class, at the standard rate of $_____ per credit hour, or $_____ for the ____-hour course.

This offer is contingent on you not having additional employment assignments at the University of Kentucky that cause you to become an equal to or greater than 75% FTE employee of the University.

Your employment is also contingent upon a background check conducted by the University; return of this signed letter; receipt of official, original transcript showing highest degree earned (please also include undergraduate transcripts if your highest degree and undergraduate degree are in different disciplines); current CV or resume; and approval by University administration and the Board of Trustees.

I look forward to your contribution to the teaching effort in the Department of _____. Please continue to work with me as you coordinate your course plans with the department's expected outcomes. Do not hesitate to let me know if you have any questions.

Please respond no later than _____ to accept this offer.

Sincerely,

Department Chair
